Director of Information Services

SUBJECT: DCI's Annual Report to Congress

REFERENCE: Multiple addressee memorandum from Director, Office of Policy and Planning dated 7 December 1981; Same Subject

1. The submission to the DCI's Annual Report to Congress from the Office of Information Services is:

During the past year, we strengthened our information handling program by incorporating most of the information handling positions in the Agency into a separate Career Sub-Group. The purpose of this action was to provide a cadre of employees specializing in information handling throughout the Agency and to provide for their professional development and career opportunities.
